A Terrible Fall Out!

I had a terrible fall out with the Showalter family about ten days ago. The trouble was about this: I was stopping there, and one day towards evening I proposed to walk out towards the Enon church, which is about four miles in the country, where there was to be meeting that evening. When I proposed to walk to where the brethren live in the direction of the church, brother and sister Showalter and family remonstrated. So when the time came to start to Enon, brother Showalter hitched his black horse to the two seated spring rig, and six of us got on board and started off in a gentle trot towards the church. When we got within a mile or so of the church, right at the crossing of the roads, the horse took fright at a, what is in this country called, "tumble weed," and made a sudden jump to one side, and the front seat, brother Showalter, myself and the little girl, fell out in a pile, and after the horse had jumped once or twice more, the hind seat, Sister Showalter, Sarah and the little boy dumped out. The horse which had been going south, having made a half turn and dumped us out, went west with the remaining part of the wagon as fast as his legs could carry him and left us groaning and grunting and asking each other, "are you hurt." All were hurt more or less, but no one seriously injured. Brother S. was pitched on his face, and his nose and mouth bled alarmingly for a while. A good samaritan came along and took me to the meeting and one took the rest back home. The horse ran about four miles and stopped at brother Samuel Beechly's water tank, and some how got fast and stayed there until Bro. Samuel returned from church, who took the horse and wagon home, neither being much injured.

This was a terrible fall out without much provocation, or ill feelings towards one another excepting what Sister Showalter entertains against the horse. I don't know what his name is, but he is "black," and according to "Revelations" would be a fit emblem of destruction and devastation.

Dayton, Ohio.

At our church council held recently bro. S. Brumbsugh, M. D., was chosen to the ministry. Bro. Gustus Stuckrath of East Dayton, and Bro. Protsman, of West Dayton, were chosen deacons. The Lord abundantly supply these brethren with wisdom and the Holy Spirit that they may be efficient workers in his vineyard

Many thanks to Bro. E. Mason for the manner in which he presided at that council.

Captain Benjamin Franklin Darst, formerly a minister among the German Baptists, later a member among the Old Order Brethren has again returned to his first love, the German Baptist fraternity, at Zimmerman, Ohio.

Surely the captian (now leader of the flock) should be happy. He need fear no rival, and not likely that the congregation will soon rise above him in intelligence and virtue.

Spiritually may they prosper. All is well that ends well, and if those intelligent and accomplished young ladies (typos) at the EVANGELIST office will please spell and punctuate this correctly, it may, or it may not, read well.

THE PULPIT TREASURY for November is on our table and like our predecessors is full of just such help as preachers and Christian workers need. Its articles are not only of the highest excellence but are exceedingly timely and suggestive. The portrait of Dr. Harper of Philadelphia, forms the frontispiece, which is followed by a capital sermon on "Centennial Memories." A sketch of his life is also given with a view of North Broad Street Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia. A brilliant Christmas Sermon on "The New Testament Christ, the Old Testament Shekinah," by Rev. David Gregg the popular pastor of Park Street Church, Boston, will be read with interest, and also the New Year Sermon on "The Clock of Destiny," by Dr. A. H. Moment. The Sermon on "Unseen but Living," by Dr. Joseph Parker will amply repay perusal. Leading Thought of Sermons are by Drs. Findley, Hulbert and Henson. The articles by Dr. Noble on Men of Wealth, Principal Reynolds on Consecrated Men, and Rev. W. S. Danley on Sociability in the Church, and that Jerusalem's Buried Secrets are each excellent on the topic treated. The helpful hints for Workers are especially rich and suggestive. Woman's Inalienable Rights, by Talmage is pointed and characteristic. Christ Disciplines the Ministry, by Rev. W. Hackney, will prove very helpful and comforting, while the continuous flow of the Water of Life, by Dr. Burns is very encouraging and hopeful. The Editorials on The Saloon and the Home, Beneficence, Assurance, Presumption, Two Hundred Thousand Stumbling Blocks and Head, Heart, Hand are bright and crisp. All departments full.

I had not the pleasure of attending brother DeBolt's last revival. He preached ten sermons for the brethren in Washington County, resulting in four accessions. I understand the interest manifested was for good. The meetings will probably be reported by some one who was present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sterling have come home from Johnstown. My brother was pastor there the year. Father has been sick this summer and fall, and he wanted Andy and Lissa at home. They are sad to leave Johnstown because of their newly made friends and a partially completed work, but the home tie is the stronger in the balancing of duties. I hope the brethren of Johnstown, in whom I am kindly interested, may find a pastor who will serve them better. I know that my brother and sister wish so too.

Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia.

Volume I. of this work, now on our table, abundantly fulfills the promises of the publisher's prospectus. It is a really handsome volume of 640 pages, half Morocco binding, large type, profusely illustrated, and yet sold for the price of 65 cents; cloth binding only 50 cents—postage 11 cents extra. Large discounts even from these prices are allowed to early subscribers. It is to be issued in about thirty volumes.

The MANIFOLD CYCLOPEDIA is, in many ways, unlike any other Cyclopedia. It undertakes to present a survey of the entire circle of knowledge, whether of WORDS or of THINGS, thus combining the characteristics of a Cyclopedia and a Dictionary, including in its vocabulary every word which has any claim to a place in the English language. Its form of publication is as unique as its plan—the "Ideal Edition" its publisher calls it, and the popular verdict seems to sustain his claim. It certainly is delightfully convenient. It will not be strange if this proves to be the great popular cyclopedia. It certainly is worthy of examination by all searchers after knowledge. The publisher sends specimen pages free to any applicant. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, 393 Pearl St., New York, or Lakeside Building, Chicago.

W. O. Tuggle, LaGrange, Ga., writing about Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. says: "It is a priceless jewel as a disinfectant and deodorizer. My wife wife states for the the benefit of young mothers that it is a valuable adjunct to the nursery." It is equally so to parents travelling with children. Not only is the Fluid invaluable as a deodorizer, but a few drops added to the water in bathing will remove all eruptions from the skin, chafing, etc., and greatly refresh and soothe.

Deafness Can't Be Cured

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflamation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.
